Be Informed – Animal Control Ordinance

Jaime McAloon Lampman has been with Ingham County Animal Control since December 2004. Previously was Executive Director of the Humane Society in Battle Creek. She has served as Executive Director, CEO, and Director for Animal Control, Humane Societies, and private nonprofit animal shelters since 1989. Jaime McAloon Lampman has been classified as an expert witness on Dog fighting testimony in Michigan and Oklahoma. She has also testified in well over 400 cases of animal abuse, served as an animal cruelty investigator, established programs on spray/neuter, humane education, and a variety of topics related to animal welfare. Currently serves on the Michigan Animal Control Association Board of Directors and is a member of the Mason Rotary Club. She has three dogs, three cats, and hopefully a horse this summer. Email: jmcaloon@ingham.org. Accompanying Jaime is Deputy Director, Dave Wilcox, the immediate supervisor to the officers.

Yolanda Bennett is the Housing and Neighborhood Specialist from the City Attorney's office. She is a 2005 graduate of Cooley Law School and continues the outstanding tradition of first-rate Housing and Neighborhood Specialists. She handles all housing and neighborhood issues that come directly into the Office, and frequently the most difficult issues that other Departments refer. Ms. Bennett also prosecutes District Court matters and staffs the Public Safety Committee. Email: ybennett@lansingmi.gov
